Domestic Violence Support Group Begins January 15 at Partnership

(Chattanooga, TN) January 8, 2019- Every Tuesday from 6-7 p.m., an educational support group discussing the signs, symptoms and cycles of domestic violence will take place at Partnership's Crisis Resource Center at 300 E. 8th Street in Chattanooga.

"This group is for those who want to better understand the cycles of domestic violence, know the signs and symptoms, and talk with other survivors," said Constance Dawes-Shazier, Shelter Program Manager of Victim Support Services.

Child care will be provided and parents/guardians must call ahead and reserve a spot for their child. For more information contact Charolette Brand at 423-755-2858 or cbrand@partnershipfca.com

The Partnership for Families, Children and Adults has been serving the Tennessee Valley community for 140 years through professional counseling, crisis intervention, and prevention services. It began with the 1877 establishment of the Ladies Aid Society, which later became the Florence Crittenton Home. Under direction of United Way, The Florence Crittenton Service, Family Service Agency and Travelers Aid Society merged into Community Services of Greater Chattanooga, Inc. in 1973. In 1981, the agency assumed the name Family and Children's Services of Chattanooga, Inc., and in 2003 became the Partnership for Families, Children and Adults.
